Location

This office development has an excellent location at Monks Cross North which is situated approximately 2 miles to the north east of York city centre, close to the confluence of the A1237 North York Ring Road and the A64 by-pass; road connections are therefore excellent. Monks Cross is established as one of Yorks most sought after business locations, comprising high quality office and hi-tech properties occupied by a range of renowned national and local organisations. Within walking distance there is a vast range of shopping and recreational facilities including a number of restaurants, petrol stations, supermarkets, a fitness club and two shopping centres, boasting names such as M&S, John Lewis, Sports Direct, Primark, Debenhams, amongst many others.

Description

Triune Court comprises four self contained 2 storey office buildings with a combination of brick, block and steel cladding. We are able to offer two attractive first floor suites in these high quality office buildings offering between 3,177 or 5,175 sq ft of open plan office accommodation with high quality partitioned meeting and training rooms within a secure site benefitting from established external landscaped areas and plentiful on site car parking.

- Comfort Cooling
- 200mm raised access floors
- Suspended ceilings / CAT II lighting
- Broadband fibre optic cabling
- Tinted double glazed opening windows
- Impressive reception foyer
- DDA compliant WC facilities
- Shower and canteen/kitchen facilities
- Landscaped surrounds and courtyard
- Excellent car parking ratio
